Special days in May

The May birth flowers are the lily of the valley and hawthorn. Lilies of the valley symbolises sweetness, humility, and happiness, while hawthorns are associated with hope, fertility, and love.

'In County Leitrim, Marsh-marigold is known as May flower and on May Eve (30th April) the tradition was that these flowers were placed at the entrance or on window-ledges of homes and farmhouses to ward off evil. It is still a reasonably common practice in some areas.

The Month of May

I love the lazy month of May;
The days all seem to be the best.
Yet I said the same thing about April,
When the robins were building their nest.
The stately daffodils and tulips
Burst forth in grand array.
Blooming reds and yellows share
In what I call "a perfect day."
Blue skies above with their puffy clouds
Watch the sun shine through the trees.
The air carries the smells of Spring
Wafted by love on the gentle breeze.
Each day of May, receive a blessing.
No matter where you happen to be.
Far and wide, from earth to sky,
God's beauty abounds for all to see.
